The volcanic hillsides are abundant with fauna, flora and orange blooms and the coastline is lapped by deepest blue waters. Overlooking the bay of Cascais, and just 20 minutes from the City of Lisbon, Estoril offers the best of both worlds. Here you can enjoy beautiful coastal walks and sandy beaches combined with shopping and sightseeing in one of Europe's most historic cities.

The unique microclimate found in Estoril ensures that both Christmas and March are generally quite pleasant and sunny. Lisbon, beautifully situated on the River Tagus is easily accessible by train. Visit the Monastery of Jeronimos and the Tower of Belem, symbols of Portugal's maritime expansion. The medieval Castle of San Jorge offers spectacular views.
